Re: Appeal of FOIA File Number: 20190513

Dear Mr. Martinez,

Reference is made to your letter dated April 4, 2019, appealing the determination of Special Agent in Charge (SAIC) Kim E. Campbell, Secret Service Freedom of Information and Privacy Act Officer, regarding your request for information pertaining to any and all investigations by the Secret Service into threats against Congresswomen Rashida Talib, Ilhan Omar, Ayanna Pressley, and Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez.

The Secret Service has conducted a search for records responsive to your request. No records responsive to your request were located in this search. Based on a review of the search, it has been determined that a reasonable search was conducted for responsive records. Pursuant to Title 18 of the United States Code, section § 3056, the Secret Service is not charged with the protection of members of Congress or authorized to conduct investigations into threats made against them.

Under federal law, we are required to advise you that any decision on appeal is subject to judicial review in the District Court in the district where the complainant resides, has a principal place of business, or in which the agency records are situated, or in the District of Columbia. In addition, the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) offers mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. You may contact OGIS in any of the following ways:
